1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Remuneration and Nomination Committee (Committee) has been established as a committee of the board of directors (Board) of Prescient Therapeutics Limited ACN 006 569 106 (Company, we, our, us).
 - 1.2 This Charter sets out the role, authority, responsibilities, composition and procedural requirements of the Committee.
 - 1.3 To the extent that there is any inconsistency between this Charter and the Company's Constitution, the Constitution will prevail to the extent of that inconsistency.

2. Role and objectives

- 2.1 The Committee's role and objectives are to support and advise the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities to shareholders and employees of the Company, by:
 - (a) endeavouring to ensure that:
 - (i) the directors and senior executives of the Company are remunerated fairly and appropriately;
 - (ii) the remuneration policies and outcomes of the Company strike an appropriate balance between the interests of the Company's shareholders, and rewarding and motivating the executives and employees in order to secure the long-term benefits of their energy and loyalty;
 - (iii) the human resources policies and practices are consistent with and complementary to the strategic direction and objectives of the Company as determined by the Board;
 - (iv) short and long-term incentives are challenging and linked to the creation of sustainable shareholder returns; and
 - (v) any termination benefits are justified and appropriate;
 - (b) reviewing and advising the Board on the composition of the Board and its Committees and the necessary and desirable competencies of Board members;
 - (c) developing a process for the evaluation of the performance of the Board, its committees and individual executive and non-executive directors;
 - (d) ensuring that proper succession plans for Board members and senior executives are in place for consideration by the Board; and
 - (e) advising the Board on induction and continuing professional development programs for directors.
- 2.2 In order to fulfil its responsibilities, the Committee will have the right:
 - (a) to obtain information from management; and
 - (b) to seek advice from external consultants or specialists where the Committee considers that necessary or appropriate to allow the Committee to make its determinations or recommendations to the Board.
- 2.3 The role of the Committee Chair is to:

- (a) determine the agenda for meetings of the Committee in conjunction with the Secretary of the Committee;
 - (b) chair meetings of the Committee and take reasonable steps for the proper functioning of the Committee, including the proper conduct of meetings and an appropriate level of discussion;
 - (c) ensure adequate flow of relevant information to the Committee;
 - (d) advise the Board on the Committee's recommendations to the Board on matters falling within the scope of the Committee's responsibilities;
 - (e) review the minutes of meetings of the Committee for circulation to and approval of the Committee, and sign the approved minutes;
 - (f) ensure Committee's action items are reviewed regularly and satisfactorily resolved in a timely manner; and
 - (g) act under a delegation of the Committee, including liaising on behalf of the Committee with consultants advising the Committee.

3. General remuneration responsibilities

3.1 In relation to its remuneration function, the Committee is required to review and make recommendations to the Board about (where applicable):

- (a) the terms of remuneration for the executive and non-executive directors and other senior executives of the Company from time to time including the criteria and processes for assessing performance;
- (b) the process for, and report to the Board on the outcomes of, remuneration reviews for:
 - (i) each non-executive director;
 - (ii) the executives collectively; and
 - (iii) each executive director and other senior executives of the Company;
- (c) changes in remuneration, recruitment, retention and termination policies and practices, including superannuation and other benefits, personnel practices, and industrial relations strategies;
- (d) compliance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements in relation to any such remuneration, equity plans and termination benefits, including obtaining any shareholder approvals which are necessary;
- (e) employee equity plans and allocations under those plans;
- (f) the disclosure of remuneration strategies, policies and practices within the Company and, if necessary, to the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) and other regulatory authorities;
- (g) the preparation and approval of the remuneration report to be included in the Annual Report in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth);
- (h) facilitating shareholder and other stakeholder engagement in relation to the Company's remuneration strategies, policies and practices; and

- (i) whether there is any gender or other inappropriate bias in remuneration for directors, senior executives or other employees.

4. Specific remuneration responsibilities

4.1 In order to fulfil its responsibilities relating to remuneration, the Committee will (where applicable):

Executive remuneration generally

- (a) review and evaluate market practice and trends in remuneration matters;
- (b) review and make recommendations to the Board regarding executive remuneration generally including, but not limited to, base pay, incentive payments, equity awards and service contracts;
- (c) consider whether to seek shareholder approval of the executive remuneration and, if shareholder approval is not required, whether to disclose any specific remuneration terms (such as termination payments) to ASX;
- (d) oversee the implementation of executive remuneration within the Company;

Executive directors and senior management

- (e) review and make recommendations to the Board on the specific remuneration for each executive director (including base pay, incentive payments, equity awards, termination payments and service contracts), determine whether any shareholder approvals are required and ensure that any equity-based executive remuneration is made in accordance with shareholder approvals;
- (f) review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the specific remuneration (including base pay, incentive payments, equity awards, termination payments and service contracts) for each senior executive of the Company;

Non-executive director remuneration

- (g) review and establish the level of remuneration for non-executive directors, including fees, superannuation and other benefits. The level of director remuneration is to be set so as to attract the best candidates for the Board while maintaining a level commensurate with boards of similar size and type;
- (h) where necessary recommend that the Board seek an increase in the amount of remuneration for non-executive directors approved by shareholders;
- (i) consider if any equity-based remuneration is appropriate for non-executive directors;

Equity based and long-term incentive plans (LTIs)

- (j) review, at least annually, and make recommendations to the Board regarding the design of all equity based and/or LTI plans;
- (k) keep all plans under review in the light of legislative, regulatory and market developments and make recommendations to the Board regarding proposed amendments to any such plans;
- (l) for each such plan, determine each year whether awards will be made under that plan;

- (m) review and make recommendations to the Board regarding proposed aggregate and individual awards under each plan, including determining the applicable eligibility criteria and vesting and exercise conditions;
- (n) review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the administration and allocation of individual interests in awards which are held in a trust or similar structure;
- (o) review and make recommendations to the Board regarding performance hurdles for such plans, if appropriate;
- (p) administer the operation of the plans, including determining disputes and resolving questions of fact or interpretation concerning the plans;

Short term incentives

- (q) review, at least annually, and make recommendations regarding short term incentives, performance targets and bonus payments for executives, management, employees and contractors; and

Performance reviews

- (r) review and report annually to the Board on the performance of executive directors, non-executive directors and senior executives.

4.2 In the discharge of the Committee's responsibilities, no executive should be directly involved in determining their own remuneration and be privy to the conflict of interest that may arise in the process of setting the remuneration for other executives that may indirectly affect their own.

4.3 The Committee must at all times have regard to, and notify the Board as appropriate, of all legal and regulatory requirements, including shareholder approvals which are necessary to obtain.

5. Nomination responsibilities

5.1 In relation to its nomination function, the Committee is required to:

- (a) develop and implement processes for the evaluation of the performance of the Board, its Committees and individual executive and non-executive directors and regularly review those processes;
- (b) establish criteria for Board membership;
- (c) review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the size and composition of the Board, having regard to the objective that the Board comprise of directors with a broad range of skills, expertise and experience, from a diverse range of backgrounds, including gender;
- (d) develop and review the process for the selection, appointment and re-election of directors;
- (e) establish a skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity the Board has or is looking to achieve in its membership and ensure it covers the skills required to address existing and emerging business and governance issues of the Company;
- (f) periodically assess the skills, experience and expertise required to discharge the Board's duties, having regard to the strategic direction of the Company, and make recommendations to the Board about the necessary and desirable competencies of directors, the time expected to be devoted by non-executive directors in relation to the Company's affairs, and plans for enhancing director competencies;

- (g) identify and make recommendations to the Board for the appointments of new Board candidates having regard to the policy stated in section 7 below;
- (h) inform the Board of the names of directors who are retiring in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Constitution and make recommendations to the Board as to whether the Board should support the re-nomination of that retiring director;
- (i) establish and facilitate an induction program for new directors with all such information and advice which may be considered necessary or desirable for the director to commence their appointment to the Board, including information and advice regarding:
 - (i) the Company's financial, strategic, operational and risk management position;
 - (ii) the rights, duties and responsibilities of the directors;
 - (iii) the roles and responsibilities of senior executives; and
 - (iv) the role of Board committees;
- (j) develop and review continuous professional development programs for directors in order to enhance director competencies and develop and enhance directors' skills and knowledge on key developments effecting the Company and the industry in which it operates;

- (p) review succession planning for Board members and provide advice to the Board on whether succession plans are in place to maintain an appropriate balance of skills, experience, expertise and diversity on the Board;
- (q) review succession planning for the Chief Executive Officer and other key executives of the Company;
- (r) review the performance of the Chair and report results of the evaluation to the Board; and
- (s) review the membership and performance of other Board committees and make recommendations to the Board.

6. Board approvals

- 6.1 Before implementing any of the following proposals the Board will request the Committee to review the proposal and make a recommendation to the Board in relation to:

- (a) any change to the remuneration or contract terms of the executive directors and any other senior executives of the Company;
 - (b) any amendment to any short-term incentive scheme adopted by the Company and allocation of sums under the short-term incentive scheme to directors and senior executives;
 - (c) the design of any new equity or share plan or executive incentive or option plan, or the amendment of any existing equity or share plan or executive incentive or option plan;
 - (d) the total level of award proposed from equity or share plans or executive incentive or option plans; and
 - (e) any proposed termination payment to the executive directors and any other senior executives of the Company which has not been previously reviewed and recommended by the Committee. A termination payment to any other departing executive must be reported to the Committee at its next meeting.

7. Selection and appointment of new directors

- 7.1 Factors to be considered when reviewing a potential candidate for appointment as a director include:
- (a) the skills, experience, expertise and personal qualities that will best complement Board effectiveness;
 - (b) the existing composition of the Board, having regard to the objective that the Board should comprise a mix of executive and non-executive directors and comprise directors with a broad range of skills, knowledge, expertise and experience from a diverse range of backgrounds;
 - (c) the capability of the candidate to devote the necessary time and commitment to the role (this involves a consideration of matters such as other board or executive appointments);
 - (d) potential conflicts of interest;
 - (e) the independence of the candidate, with reference to the criteria for an independent director set out in the Board Charter; and
 - (f) the Board's commitment to promoting diversity on the Board.
- 7.2 Detailed background information in relation to a potential candidate should be provided to all directors.
- 7.3 Appropriate checks should be undertaken before appointing a potential candidate or putting forward a candidate to shareholders for approval, which should include checks as to the person's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history.
- 7.4 The identification of potential candidates may be assisted by the use of external search organisations as appropriate.
- 7.5 The Committee will report to the Board outlining the following details of the director selection process:
- (a) the process by which candidates are identified and selected, including whether an external search organisation was used and their recommendations; and

- (b) the factors taken into account in the selection process, and the reasons why the Committee is recommending the appointment of the candidate as a director.
- 7.6 A written agreement will be entered into for each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.

8. Re-election of Directors

- 8.1 Each year, the Committee will review each of the directors who are seeking re-election having regard to:
- (a) their independence;
 - (b) the results of their performance review;
 - (c) the time required for a non-executive director to undertake the role and whether they are meeting such requirement;
 - (d) the Company's succession plan;
 - (e) their skill set relative to the Company's strategy; and
 - (f) any other factor considered relevant to the director's contribution to the Board.
- 8.2 On the basis of its review, the Committee will make recommendations to the Board regarding whether to support the director's re-election and a summary of the reason why the Committee makes such recommendations.
- 8.3 The Committee's review should ensure that the Company can provide its shareholders with all material information in its possession to assist in making a decision on whether or not to re-elect a director.

9. Composition

- 9.1 The Committee will initially comprise a minimum of three members, a majority of whom should be independent non-executive directors.
- 9.2 It is intended that any future Committee will comprise a minimum of three members, all of whom will be non-executive directors and the majority of whom should be independent directors.
- 9.3 If the Chair of the Board is an independent director, the Chair of the Board will be the Chair of the Committee.
- 9.4 Otherwise, the Board will nominate the Chair of the Committee from time to time. The Chair of the Committee must be an independent director.
- 9.5 The Board may appoint additional directors to the Committee or remove or replace members of the Committee by resolution. Members may withdraw from membership by written notification to the Board;
- 9.6 If a Committee member ceases to be a director of the Company, their appointment as a member of the Committee is automatically terminated with immediate effect;
- 9.7 Directors who are non-Committee members may attend all or part of a meeting at the invitation of the Committee Chair, subject to no conflict of interest on the matters being discussed.

9.8 The Company Secretary must attend all Committee meetings as minute secretary.

10. Procedural requirements

- 10.1 The Committee will meet as required but not less than twice a year.
- 10.2 A quorum of the Committee will comprise two members, one of whom must be the Chair or, in the absence of the Chair, another independent director.
- 10.3 If the Chair is absent from a meeting and no acting Chair has been appointed, the members present may choose one of them to act as Chair for that meeting.
- 10.4 Meetings of the Committee may be held or participated in by conference call or similar means, and decisions may be made by circular or written resolution.
- 10.5 Each member of the Committee will have one vote.
- 10.6 The Chair will not have a casting vote. If there is a tied vote, the motion will lapse.
- 10.7 A member must not be present for discussions at a Committee meeting on, or vote on a matter regarding, their own election, re-election, removal, remuneration or a specific remuneration policy that affects them. However, a member who is a non-executive director may be present and vote in relation to the remuneration of all non-executive directors.
- 10.8 Any member of the Committee may, with the Chair's prior approval, invite any non-member to attend and participate in a meeting of the Committee. Any such invitee will not have any vote.
- 10.9 Following each meeting the Chair will report to the Board on any matter that should be brought to the Board's attention, and on any recommendation of the Committee that requires Board approval or action.
- 10.10 Minutes of meetings of the Committee will be prepared for approval by the Committee and circulated to the members of the Board.
- 10.11 The Company Secretary will attend all Committee meetings and provide such assistance as may be required by the Chair in relation to preparation of the agenda, minutes or papers for the Committee.
- 10.12 The Committee may have access to such internal resources, and seek such advice from any external advisers, consultants or specialists, as it may consider necessary or desirable to fulfil its objectives.
- 10.13 The Chair or, if the Chair is not available, a Committee member should attend the Annual General Meeting of the Company and be available to answer any questions from shareholders about the Committee's activities or, if appropriate, the Company's remuneration arrangements.

11. Annual review

- 11.1 The Committee will prepare and provide to the Board annually:
- (a) a self-evaluation of its performance against its Charter, goals and objectives;
 - (b) recommended goals and objectives for the coming year; and
 - (c) recommended changes or improvements to its Charter if necessary.

- 11.2 The annual review may be done by way of an oral report to the Board by the Chair of the Committee.
 - 11.3 The Board will make available at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the Committee met throughout that period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings.
 - 11.4 The Board will make available its policies and practices in relation to the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives in accordance with the Corporations Act and listing rules.

12. Revisions of this Charter

- 12.1 The Committee is responsible for reviewing the effectiveness of this Charter and the operations of the Committee and to make recommendations to the Board of any amendments.
- 12.2 Any amendment to this Charter must be approved by the Board.
